Dear Chuck,

On behalf of Utah Valley University, I would like to personally thank you for our tremendous service and leadership in preparing the 2010 Northwest Commission on Colleges & University self-study report and supporting the evaluation team visit. I wish I could have thanked you in person.

This accreditation process involved a collaborative effort and dedicated service from many faculty, staff, and administrators. The information and feedback gathered through this process will continue to help UVU strengthen its foundation, fulfill its mission, and achieve its strategic goals and core themes.

Thank you for your commitment to UVU and for your excellence service on this accreditation project.

Best,
